

JUN 12 1920

- 1.
2. Situated snugly 'neath waving palms and by a quiet stream is the bungalow, oft written of in song, but seldom realized.
3. Each day awakens with a promise of something new.
4. A strong desire to cruise along this stream ----
5. ---- to where the Tarpon frolic ----
6. ---- and rare scenery abounds. Here the white hyacinths float lazily along with the current.
7. This river came in a night, so the Indians say, hence the name -- New River.
8. The Mangrove Tree is supported by a countless tangle of roots which keep the trunk always above high water. It is the only tree growing in salt water.
9. Tarpon Bend is peace personified -- but sometime in its shadowy past a family of whites was here massacred by the Indians.
10. An Indian Trail leads up to a roadway which is overhung with Live Oaks.
11. Here Florida's state flower, the Hibiscus, lends its charm, ----
12. ---- with now and then a Sage Palm and Austrian Pine.
13. Wild Sea Grapes to feast upon.
14. Spanish Bayonets bristle in the bright sunlight ----
15. ---- while the Whooping Cranes "whoop" close by.
16. The Screw Pine.
17. Florida also has her Date Palms.
18. Soft breezes rustle the leafy skirts of the stately Washington Palm.
19. To remove the cabbage from the Cabbage Palm means its death.
20. Here a coconut a day drops from each tree.
21. A leaf out of the Jungle book.

(The end)

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress